Poetry and Comfort

PART 1

Poetry can take many different shapes and forms. Below is a poem that uses a diamond pattern. The number of words per line is shown on the left. Use this form of poetry to write a poem about today's Bible story. You may begin with one of these words: Jairus, daughter, or Jesus.

PART 2

Make the head below look like you. Then imagine that you are going to visit a family of believers that has recently lost a loved one. In the speech bubble, write what you could say to comfort that family.

Treasure in a Treasure

Cut out the letters below. Put them in order so that the words inside the letters form the first two stanzas of hymn 152. Then read the large letters to find a hidden message!
